Message from the President

I am honored to serve as Peninsula Section's president for a second year. As we enter this New Year 5778, it is a good time to pause for a moment, contemplating with pride all that we do.

What inspires you? Is it being involved? Is it making a difference? Is it meeting new people, sharing ideas and forming new friendships? Please join us and encourage your relatives, friends, and neighbors to join with you.

NCJW is always changing to meet the needs of our community and our members. This year our education department, headed by vice president Myra Garber, and our advocacy department, headed by vice president Pam Shelden, will be working more closely together as we continue to advocate for the issues our Jewish values inform us are important, pursuing justice for all. We need new people and new ideas as we formulate how to proceed so that we can be a more effective force for change at the local, state, and federal levels. If you are interested in joining any of the committees in formation, please let Pam, Myra, or me know, or call the office at 569-3660.

We are developing a new website at NCJWPeninsula.org which should be ready in the fall. We plan to communicate more and more through the internet and social media. In addition to mailing our Bulletins, we will keep you informed by posting our Bulletins on the website. If we don't have your email address, please call the office and give it to us.

Our exciting year began in July, when the Hewlett Woodmere School District Board and Administration agreed to allow us the use of the Woodmere Middle School for the fifth Back 2 School Store, staffed by more than 200 volunteers. We were able to invite 800 children to choose a complete set of new clothes and school supplies for the first day of school.

Those who attended our Health Forum in August learned how to de-stress our lives. One of the best ways to eliminate stress is by joining a group of like-minded women and men who have a worthy goal. Along the way, lasting friendships are formed.

Judy Collins will be our September program meeting speaker! With her songs, she evoked the idealism and determination of a generation united against social and environmental injustices.

The overwhelming enthusiasm for our Game Day prompted us to hold a fall Game Day in October as well as in the spring. I hope to see you at both, as well as our trip to the Caramoor Music Festival and all of the other events planned for this year.

Best wishes for a happy, healthy, less stressful New Year.

L'Shana Tova, Judi Braverman

MISSION STATEMENT

A FAITH IN THE FUTURE.
A BELIEF IN ACTION.®

The National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW) is a grassroots organization of volunteers and advocates who turn progressive ideals into action. Inspired by Jewish values, NCJW strives for social justice by improving the quality of life for women, children, and families and by safeguarding individual rights and freedoms.

SINGING LESSONS: JUDY COLLINS LOOKS BACK AND AHEAD

Program Meeting – Tuesday, September 19

Few artists have as much staying power as music icon Judy Collins. She has celebrated over 50 years of recording with 37 albums, top ten hits, Grammy wins, and gold and platinum status. No wonder that she was the muse for the classic rock song "Suite: Judy Blue Eyes".

Judy has inspired audiences with beautiful vocals, boldly vulnerable songwriting, personal life triumphs, and a firm commitment to social activism. In the 1960's she evoked both the idealism and steely determination of a generation united against social and environmental injustices. She remains active in social justice issues today, representing UNICEF and numerous other causes. She is the director (along with Jill Godmillow) of an Academy Award-nominated film about Antonia Brico – "Portrait of a Woman", the first woman to conduct major symphonies around the world – and Judy's classical piano teacher when she was young.

Judy Collins, now 78, is as creatively vigorous as ever – writing, touring worldwide, and nurturing fresh talent. She is a modern day Renaissance woman who is an accomplished painter, filmmaker, record label head and musical mentor. She continues to create music of hope and healing that lights up the world and speaks to the heart.

National Council of Jewish Women Peninsula Section

New Member Breakfast and Program Meeting

WELCOME THE STRANGER – PROTECT THE REFUGEE TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17, 12:00 NOON

Hewlett-East Rockaway Jewish Centre

Topic: The Refugee Crisis and the Immigration Experience

HIAS (Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society) rescues people whose lives are in danger for being who they are. Like NCJW, HIAS stands for a world in which refugees find welcome, safety and freedom. Join us as Rabbi Rachel Grant Meyer, Director of Education, discusses and informs us how HIAS protects the most vulnerable refugees, helping them build new lives and reuniting them with their families. You will meet one of these sponsored refugees at this event.

PAM SHELDEN – VP Advocacy; SANDRA MINTZ – Coordinator

How many of us remember high school Junior English when we read and discussed George Orwell's 1984? In Orwell's world, "The Party told you to reject the evidence of your eyes and ears. It was their final, most essential command."

Idealistic, fascinated, incredulous, we argued, "It can't happen here! No, not in America where independent thought is sacrosanct." So, we blissfully and naively believed, dismissing Orwell's novel as just pleurably frightening science fiction. We wrapped ourselves in a blanket of comfort, believing in our free press, one of our cherished freedoms, that protects us from the world where, as Kellyann Conway put it, "alternate facts" are as important as the facts themselves, where unreality is propagated with reality, where distortion bends the facts.

Freedom of the Press Under Attack

Now, Our Freedom of the Press is Under Attack

When we look at the Constitution's First Amendment, we find that "Congress shall make no law...abridging the Freedom of Speech or of the Press." Although the courts have long struggled to determine whether the Constitution's framers intended to differentiate press freedom from speech freedom, most have concluded that freedom of the press derives from freedom of speech. Freedom of the press is the right to articulate one's opinions and ideas without fear of government retaliation or censorship.

Freedom of the Press is Now Under Daily Assault from the Highest Levels of Government in a Self-Made War

- Encouraging calls for more action against journalists if not against journalism itself
- Taking press briefings off camera
- Accusing much of the news media, including The New York Times and The Washington Post, as presenting "fake news"
- Claiming that the media is a disgrace, and members of the press are incompetent or dishonest
- Claiming that the media is the enemy of the American people

Attacking the press sets a wrong example worldwide and puts our country at grave risk. Our founding fathers drafted the documents to enshrine press freedom for good reason. James Madison, concerned about a misinformed public acting on misplaced passions, saw the press as an antidote. Having recently celebrated our country's 241st birthday, we need to remind ourselves about our forbearers' commitment to the importance of a free press.

Let's Heed the Words of Past Presidents

"There is a terrific advantage not having the abrasive quality of the press applied to you daily, to an administration. Even though we never like it, and even though we wish they didn't write it, and even though we disapprove, there still isn't any doubt that we couldn't do the job at all in a free society without a very, very active press."—John F. Kennedy, 1962

"Since the founding of this nation, freedom of the press has been a fundamental tenet of American life. There is no more essential ingredient than a free, strong and independent press to our continued success in what the founding fathers called our 'noble experiment in self-government.'" —Ronald Reagan, 1983

WE AGREE. The press, as well as the voices of those who disagree respectfully about policies and decisions, is a sacrosanct safeguard to our nation's most elemental morals and values!

A Documentary on Sex Trafficking In Brooklyn “In Our Backyard”

Sunday, September 24 – FREE and Open to the Public

10:00 am: Coffee; 10:30 am: Film

Congregation B’nai Sholom-Beth David, 100 Hempstead Avenue, Rockville Centre

This film is an investigative look into the widely unknown and unspoken world of domestic sex trafficking in Brooklyn. Documenting the emotional stories of recent survivors while also presenting the work of heroic aid organizations, law enforcement agencies and politicians, the film will raise awareness to fight this serious epidemic. The film will be followed by a Q&A with the filmmaker Danielle Rose and survivor advocate “Ashley” featured in the film.

Sponsored by NCJW: South Shore Section, Peninsula Section, Long Island Sections

Sofie Karasek

Sexual Assault Awareness on College Campuses

FERN LAMBROZA – Chair

NCJW Peninsula Section proudly sponsored the Hewlett High Schools’ Senior Send-Off Day in June. This event, which had as its goal to transition high school seniors to either college life, the military or the work force, was a resounding success. This was in part due to our wonderful speaker, Sofie Karasek.

Sofie, herself a survivor of sexual abuse while at the University of California, Berkley, is the co-founder and education director of End Rape on Campus. Sofie spoke engagingly about her own story, while at the same time presenting informative information concerning sexual assault. Topics covered were the various types of sexual assault, where to report abuse, and where to seek help if abuse should occur.

A question and answer period followed conducted with the students present. In addition, Sofie remained for lunch in order to help those students who wished to ask questions privately.

Members interested in serving on our Sexual Assault Committee should contact Bonnie at the Peninsula Section office: 516-569-3660 or email: admin@ncjwpeninsula.org

Pink Out, Power Up, Nassau County

PAM SHELDEN – VP Advocacy; SANDRA MINTZ – Coordinator

In July, Sandra Mintz, Myra Garber, Rhona Goldman, and Pam Shelden attended an activation event of volunteers organized by Planned Parenthood of Nassau County (PPNC). Never has the time been more precarious for the thousands of patients that PPNC services in its three centers. Defunding PP affiliates nationwide will block millions of people from receiving preventive care for such health issues as birth control, cancer screenings, and STD testing and treatment in its affiliates across the nation.

The goal of this PPNC Summit was to educate and mobilize the participants to protect women’s health and rights. If we are to fight this full-frontal attack on women, we need YOU to pay attention to what YOU can do with such measures as talking to family and friends; joining a phone bank; hosting a house party; lobbying your legislators by mail or phone; lobbying them in person in their local offices; or by receiving information from PPNC and NCJW. You can also become a Planned Parenthood Health Center volunteer by contacting PPNC. Health care is a right! We must be activists to continue the fight so that we ensure quality, affordable health care for every woman.

CALE: Center for Adult Life Enrichment

ENID SCHWARZBAUM – Feature Editor

Did you know there are cultural riches in our community that are available without the hassle of transportation to Manhattan? With both financial and volunteer support from NCJW Peninsula Section, CALE offers many educational and entertainment programs at the Carriage House on the campus of Hewlett-Woodmere High School.

The most popular repeat entertainer is John Kenrick, a show biz legend. He packs the house. And if you have never attended his "performance/lectures", you have been deprived. His most recent programs have included "Sophie Tucker: "Some of These Days", "Gilbert & Sullivan: A Source of Innocent Merriment", and "Singin' in the Rain – What a Glorious Feelin" about Gene Kelly. Our own Helen Pollack has sponsored his program "Burlesque: Tall Dames and Low Comedy."

To stimulate the brain, Peninsula Section underwrote Marc Greenberg: "Landmark Supreme Court Cases Everybody Should Know" as well as Vivian Wein: "Is Prayer Important for Health of Your Body & Mind?" The month of August included lectures on "How We Change our Life for the Better" and "The New Anti-Semitism".

Bunny Gelfand, Peninsula Section's Chair at CALE and acting impresario, has interviewed and booked opera singers, stage performers and professional musicians for numerous entertainment programs, always with the support from Peninsula Section. She organized the music and entertainment for the December 2016 Holiday Party at Alias Smith & Jones Restaurant.

This is just a taste of the abundance of our good fortune. Call 516-374-4747 for up-to-date program information.

ENL: English as a New Language

MARCIA ROTH –
Chair, ENL District # 14

The closing breakfast with the ENL volunteers, teachers, and administration of the Hewlett-Woodmere School District was held in June. In attendance were Dr. Mark Secaur, Asst. Supervisor of Curriculum & Instruction; Judi Braverman, NCJW Peninsula Section President; Dena Stein, V.P. of Community Services; Marcia Roth, chair of the ENL program; and Caryn Bachar, co-ordinator of the teachers.

The teachers praised the volunteers for all their help, their relationships with the children, and how the volunteers are respected and admired. These students look forward to seeing the volunteers for their help, warmth and friendships. This tutoring makes a tremendous difference in their learning, confidence and integration into the school program. The volunteers love participating in the school program and being helpful to the teachers, as well as being valued for the gratitude and love they receive from the students. Everyone received certificates of appreciation from the school, and the teachers presented gifts to the volunteers. It was a warm and wonderful gathering. New volunteers are always welcome.

For further information, please contact Marcia Roth at 516-569-3510.

So many helped to make the National Council of Jewish Women's 2017 Back 2 School Store (B2SS) a success – over 250 volunteers, 800 children invited, a special day for children with physical challenges, a Family Resource Center, and so many donors. We'd like to thank everyone, but space doesn't permit us to do this. Instead we thought we'd let those who participated express their gratitude and appreciation to all. Also a special thank you to the Hewlett-Woodmere School District.

Long Island Sections Luncheon

On May 3, Peninsula Section proudly honored Sunya Kleiner at the Long Island Sections luncheon. Our newly installed NCJW Inc. President, Beatrice Kahn, addressed the audience. Beatrice said, "Now more than ever, it is imperative we stand up in large numbers and fight to defend our hard-won rights. We are necessary, we are ready, we are powerful. This is NCJW's moment!" Everyone had a great day.

(L-R) Jackie Fetner (Chair LIS), CeCe Friedman (South Shore Section), Sunya Kleiner (Peninsula Section Honoree), Roslyn Sternlieb (Lakeville Section Honoree), Carol Fisher (South Shore Section Honoree), Celia Rosenthal (Westbury Section Honoree), Beatrice Kahn (President, NCJW Inc.)

Pre-School Dental Screening

DENA STEIN – Chair

The Pre-School Dental Screening program is a valuable service provided annually to children ages 3 and 4 who participate in the Five Towns Early Learning Center in Inwood. Dr. Joe Brofsky and Dena Stein visited the center where they taught the children about proper dental hygiene and good eating habits. Dr. Joe examined each child's teeth and gave them a fluoride treatment. The children received a goodie bag containing a toothbrush, toothpaste and stickers among other things. A note was sent home with each child indicating whether further dental care was necessary.

NCJW Tribute Cards

The National Council of Jewish Women Peninsula Section has three tribute funds. Making a donation to one of these funds is a meaningful way to celebrate a birthday, marriage, holiday, birth or any special occasion. It is also a thoughtful way to let someone know you are thinking of them in their time of sadness or loss. A tribute recipient receives a beautiful card acknowledging the gift you have made in memory of their loved ones.

Cards are available in one of our three Fund Programs and can be purchased by contacting our office at 516-569-3660.

Volunteer Recognition Celebration

What a Special Day!

NATALIE ZEIGER – Chair, Volunteer Recognition

On May 16th, NCJW Peninsula Section hosted a beautiful brunch in honor of our dedicated volunteers. With much appreciation to Florence Kruman, Sunya Kleiner, Harriet Rubenstein, and their committee, a memorable morning with speeches, poetry, praise and delicious food was enjoyed by all. Smiles, gratitude, appreciation and good vibes were definitely the order of the day!! Many thanks to the women who created and mailed the invitations, purchased supplies, set up, greeted guests and took the photographs. It was a pleasure to work with everyone. You made the day so welcoming for our volunteers.
