HERJC, Oceanside Jewish Center, BQLI Region of Women's League for Conservative Judaism, and National Council of Jewish Women present Yossi Klein Halevi, discussing his most recent book, Letters to My Palestinian Neighbor.

"A profound and original book, the work of a gifted thinker." Daphne Merkin, The Wall Street Journal

Letters to My Palestinian Neighbor is one Israeli's powerful attempt to reach beyond the wall that separates Israelis and Palestinians and into the hearts of "the enemy." In a series of letters, Yossi Klein Halevi explains what motivated him to leave his native New York in his twenties and move to Israel to participate in the renewal of a Jewish homeland, which he is committed to see succeed as a morally responsible, democratic state in the Middle East.

Hoping to break the impasse between Israelis and Palestinians, the Israeli commentator and award-winning author directly addresses his Palestinian neighbors, empathizing with Palestinian suffering, and longing for reconciliation as he explores how the conflict looks through Israeli eyes.
