Message from the President

As our 2022–23 club year is nearing its end, let us reflect on the past and look ahead to new beginnings. This has been a most challenging year on so many fronts. The board has been working diligently all year to bring to you, our members, programs and events that are not only informative but enjoyable as well. With much effort, the board has successfully changed our programming from Zoom back to in person events.

In August we held a very successful Health Forum. We were also able to bring back our wonderful Game Day. Through the year the board successfully brought to our members three Program Meetings, a wonderful four part Lecture Series about Long Island, three Advocacy Programs on Abortion Justice, our Advocacy Film Series shared with the Hewlett-Woodmere Public Library, and the showing of a film called "The Barn" to thousands of children and adults throughout the country. Our members and friends enjoyed a fantastic Broadway Show, a lovely informative luncheon for our Jewish Life Program, and going forward on May 2 another fabulous Game Day, followed by our Book Review on May 17. On June 8 we will honor our wonderful Susan Fox at our Founder's Day Luncheon.

As you can see we have been very busy this past year improving the quality of life for women, children, and families. If you have not been involved this year next year is going to be even more exciting.

NCJW will reopen our Back 2 School Store once again on August 4th and 6th.

Our fabulous thrift shop continued to operate during the most trying times of Covid 19. Stop in to support this wonderful store. We have succeeded in refurbishing our office and thrift shop which was not an easy task.

During this past year we have continued to support our community projects. Recently, it has come to the Board's attention that students are missing school because they cannot purchase sanitary pads when needed. NCJW Peninsula Section has embarked on a new community service called the Period.Project. We have donated feminine hygiene products to many schools so that a student will never miss a day of school again. Our goal is to be able to donate pads to even more schools in the future.

At this time I would like to thank our Board Members for all their hard work, giving up so much of their own time to make this year a successful one.

As you can see we have been very busy this past year improving the quality of life for women, children, and families. If you have not been involved this year next year is going to be even more exciting. Call us, let us know what your interests are and volunteer to help us achieve our goals. My hope is to see many more of our members involved in our activities for the coming year. Have a wonderful happy healthy spring and summer. See you soon.

— Fran Denny

Stand Up To Jewish Hate

CAROLE TOLKIN – VP, Advocacy

NCJW Peninsula Section is joining Stand Up To Jewish Hate, a new campaign to educate all Americans about the rise of antisemitism and mobilize people outside the Jewish community to help us address growing hate and intolerance.

We are asking everyone to post and share #■ on social media, using the blue square emoji on your phone, as a simple but powerful unifying symbol of solidarity.

We all know that antisemitism is rising at alarming rates in the United States.

Yet, new polling finds that more than half of Americans do not believe “antisemitism is a big problem” and nearly half believe that “Jews are more than capable of handling issues of antisemitism on their own”.

That’s why NCJW Peninsula Section is proud to be a Campaign Partner of the Foundation to Combat Antisemitism and a wide coalition of Jewish and non-Jewish groups, to raise awareness and empower all Americans to join us to prevent hatred and intolerance towards Jews. We need to drive home the message that while Jews make up just 2.4% of the U.S. population, we are the victims of 55% of all religious hate crimes.

STAND UP TO JEWISH HATE

Here are a few actions you can take to #StandUpToJewishHate and join this national movement:

- Post and share #■ – an emoji already available on most mobile devices – on your social media channels, email signatures, and text messages, alongside a message of support against hate and intolerance. Check out this simple guide for how to post the blue square.
- Speak up and share your personal story with antisemitism.
- Follow the #StandUpToJewishHate campaign on social media (click on the icons to the right) to keep up-to-date with #■ and learn more about antisemitism.
- Visit StandUpToJewishHate.org to subscribe to the Foundation’s “From the Command Center” e-newsletter to learn more about how antisemitism is spreading online, learn ways to identify and report it, and find helpful tools and resources around antisemitism

Together, we can educate and empower more Americans to join us in the fight to Stand Up to Jewish Hate.

Reproductive Rights Shabbat

MYRA GARBER – VP, Membership

Friday, February 17, 2023 and Saturday, February 18, 2023 were declared Reproductive Rights Shabbat by the National Council of Jewish Women. Many Rabbis across the country support abortion and reproductive freedom as a Jewish value, and they agreed to discuss this with their congregations that weekend.

Temple Am-Ehad in Lynbrook held Shabbat services to present the topic. The Temple was kind enough to invite NCJW members from our section to participate. Rabbi Dennis Ross spoke of the history of women’s struggle to control their bodies. He talked about Margaret Sanger, who first began reproductive choice for women over 100 years ago, opening her first clinic in New York. Sanger founded the American Birth Control League, which became the Planned Parenthood Federation. NCJW has often partnered with Planned Parenthood.

Gina Baldwin of Planned Parenthood and the National Institute of Reproductive Health, spoke about legislation that may affect reproductive rights in the U.S., including the overturning of Roe v. Wade and the attack on medication abortions.

We thank Temple Am-Ehad’s Social Action committee for developing this program and offering it to NCJW.

THRIFT SHOP

WE ARE GREEN

WE ARE TRENDY

NCJW women have always been trailblazers, ahead of their time, caring, bright, and bold, with a hint of eccentricity.

Peninsula Section opened our Thrift Shop over 60 years ago. We were trendy before thrifting was trendy. Can you imagine if more organizations followed in our footsteps, how much better our planet would be?

Thrifting is good for our planet, our community, our families and ourselves. Many people don't realize that recycling incorporates more than the typical plastic, it includes textiles as well. Thrifting keeps clothing out of the landfills. It also helps preserve water. Clothing production takes up a lot of time and energy as well as using a lot of water, water that we need dearly and that we are slowly running low on. In addition, it reduces chemical pollution induced by creating and buying new clothes. Overall it helps reduce our carbon footprint, making our environment a better place to live.

Thrifting contributes to our NCJW mission. We are truly vested in helping our community. We are a welcoming and sage shopping environment. We have families that have shopped generation after generation in our store. We must be doing something right.

And, if the above reasons aren't enough, we are fun, fashionable, and frugal. We can dress you from head to toe without hurting your cash flow. We are "Bloomindeals", "Homegoodies" and "Friendlier" all wrapped into one.

We are everything NCJW has always been, caring, bright, bold with a hint of eccentricity. Help us continue our efforts. Donate, shop and like us on Facebook and Instagram. Keep us green and trendy!!

Thriftfully yours,

The Installation of Officers and Board of Directors for the 2023-2024 club year will be on Tuesday, June 13, 2023, at noon at Hewlett-East Rockaway Jewish Centre. For an invitation, please call the office at 516-569-3660.

Francine Denny PRESIDENT

Fran is honored to serve as President of NCJW Peninsula Section for the club year of 2023-2024. Fran started her volunteer service when she was in her twenties. From that time on she has been associated with various Jewish organizations where she held prominent positions. Through her daughter Linda, she became interested in becoming a volunteer for NCJW. Among the positions she has held were Vice President of Membership and Marketing, Vice President of Fundraising, and most recently Executive Vice President. One of the many new projects that Fran has helped start was the Back 2 School Store which has become a major yearly event. During Fran's presidency she plans to reignite Peninsula Section's Center for Women. Fran and her husband Arthur are proud of their children and their spouses and their six grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Donna Bialor EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

I am honored to serve NCJW Peninsula Section as Executive Vice President for the coming year. Since rejoining the Board 2 years ago, I've worked on Advocacy programs focusing on Abortion Justice and Gun Safety and served as Recording Secretary. But my relationship with Peninsula Section goes back many, many years and began with the gift of a Life Membership from my mother-in-law. Times have certainly changed but NCJW Peninsula Section continues to be a leader in our community.

Hope Coleman VICE PRESIDENT BACK, 2 SCHOOL STORE

Hope proudly accepts the position of VP of the Back 2 School Store (B2SS). She has served as coordinator of the B2SS since its inception in 2012. In the past, Hope has served as VP of Education and Community Services, and chaired several Community Service projects. In 2018, Hope was honored by Todd Kaminsky in Albany as "A Woman of Distinction" and that same year she was proud to be presented with the Hannah G. Solomon Award. After the suspension of our traditional B2SS, due to Covid, Hope says that she is looking forward to resuming the in-person event. She credits the past and present donors and volunteers with the successes of the B2SS and looks forward to working with them again, helping families and children who may be struggling economically. Hope served as Director of Child Care Centers, working in the field for over 25 years. Hope and her husband Michael are very proud of their children Grey and Joanna, son-in-law Josh, and grandchildren Allison and Jacob.

Renee Fischer VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNITY SERVICES

Renee is VP of Community Service - a job she enjoys enormously. She is hopeful that the coming year will bring a return of the many functions of her department. She is especially hopeful that the Period. Project will grow and become a vital part of our section. In the past, Renee has served as Vice President of the Thrift Shop and of Education and Jewish Life. She also served two years as Executive Vice President.

Susan Fox VICE PRESIDENT, THRIFT SHOP

Susan is honored to continue as VP of the Thrift Shop. She began her involvement with NCJW by chairing the Cell Phone project and volunteering at the Back 2 School Store. After her retirement as an elementary school teacher, she joined the board and quickly became involved with a variety of committees. Susan has earned the Emerging Leader Award, and this year will be honored with the Hannah G Solomon Award. Susan will also assume the job as webmaster and Co-Chair of the Back 2 School Store. She has found this volunteer work to be extremely rewarding with the added benefit of working side by side with the dedicated, energetic members of our board. Susan and her husband Shelly are proud of their sons Jeff and Elliot, daughters-in-laws Amy and Michelle, and love being the grandparents of Freddie, Juliana, and Ezra.

Myra Garber VICE PRESIDENT, ADVOCACY

Myra is the immediate Past President of the Section, serving for three years. Shortly after taking the office, the Covid-19 pandemic reared its ugly head. Myra transitioned our section to remain viable, learning about conducting Zoom meetings, reaching out to not only the Board of Directors, but to all of our members. She spearheaded many programs, forums and lectures, providing the introduction and technology to contact all. A member for more than ten years, her history of leadership at our section includes being Executive Vice President, Emerging Leader in 2017, and Vice President of Education and of Membership. Myra has run book discussions, health forums, by-laws and policy reviews. She's been an avid participant in the Back 2 School Store program, Women's Center committee and an activist in Advocacy, attending many Washington Institutes, NCJW Conventions, and rallies for reproductive and voting rights. A former Reading and English teacher, treasurer of her teachers' union and Vice President of her retiree group, she knows that one must give back. Her husband, daughter, son and daughter-in-law and three grandchildren also understand the idea of service to one's community. As Vice President of Advocacy, Myra will work for the causes that NCJW, its members and advocates believe in - reproductive justice, fighting antisemitism and all forms of hate, racism, sexism and ageism. Myra hopes to inspire all of our members to work with her to protect the rights of women everywhere, and believes that the more people who join, participate, and attend Peninsula Section functions as we leave the isolation of Covid, the stronger we will be.

Arlene Gewanter VICE PRESIDENT, FUNDRAISING

Arlene held the position of Membership VP for the past two years, and will move on to become VP of Fund Raising for our section. During that time, Arlene was on the Board of CALE, and will continue to be actively involved in their programs. Before retiring, Arlene owned her own office furniture business. At this time, she participates weekly, in the Bill Paying Program for the Town of Hempstead. Arlene is actively involved in helping seniors to pay their bills. Part of her responsibilities is checking in to see if there are any problems and to refer to the appropriate agency. Arlene enjoys spending time with her son, David and his wife Antoinette. Of course her two grandsons, Marc and Eric always make it a wonderful time. Lastly, our incoming VP of Fundraising is completely devoted to her dog, Snickers!

Brenda Raden VICE PRESIDENT, MEMBERSHIP

Brenda Raden is honored to accept the position of Membership Vice President. Her involvement in NCJW began pre-Covid when she met Susan Schwarz who told her about volunteering at #2 School assisting teachers in the classroom. Brenda was interested and joined NCJW Peninsula Section. This led to member outreach, getting more involved, and now to VP of Membership.

Carole Tolkin VICE PRESIDENT, EDUCATION AND JEWISH AFFAIRS

I'm honored to assume the position of Education and Jewish Affairs Vice President. I have been involved in Peninsula Section for many years and have held many positions. On the personal side, I enjoy my blended family of six children and their spouses, and 15 grandchildren, three of whom live in The Netherlands. I am blessed with a full life, and part of that blessing is being a member of NCJW, Peninsula Section.

Judi Braverman RECORDING SECRETARY

Judi joined NCJW Evening Branch in the 1970's. She volunteered in the Preschool Vision Screening and ESL programs and served on the Evening Branch Board. When her children were young, she was an active PTA Board member, holding many positions, including the presidency of the Woodmere Middle School PTA. In 2013, she organized a Temple AmEchad mission to Cuba to bring medical supplies to Jewish communities there. Upon retiring as an ESL teacher, she rejoined NCJW Peninsula Section and received the Emerging Leader Award in 2015. She has chaired numerous committees and held many positions on the Board, including lecture series chair, nominating committee chair, vice president of membership and marketing, coordinator of community services, and president. She enjoys sailing, traveling, reading, walking on the Long Beach boardwalk, and especially being with her husband, children and grandchildren.

Natalie Zeiger RECORDING SECRETARY

Natalie had been Membership Coordinator this past year, and has accepted this new position for the coming year. She has been an involved and enthusiastic member of NCJW. In the past, she was Membership VP, and has been extremely involved in the B2SS. She has been our NCJW representative to the Joint Women's Seder. This year she became the chair of the steering Committee for the B2SS and will be on the Nominating Committee for the 2024-2025 slate of officers. Natalie was honored with the Emerging Leader award in 2016. She approaches each event with creativity and a "how can we make it a bit better" attitude. She looks forward to the new title of Recording Secretary and hopes to renew her writing skills this Fall! Natalie enjoys walking, yoga, movies, book discussions and time with her friends, her two children Lisa and Steve, their spouses Rich and Tali and moments with her four grandsons, Jacob, Aaron, Jordan and Noah.

Jaclyn Feldman CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Jaclyn assumes the position of Corresponding Secretary. She is a life member of NCJW and was VP of Education and Jewish Affairs, chair of our Lecture Series and headed up our Programs. Jaclyn has three children; four grandchildren, is divorced and has been with her partner for 42 years. She taught ballroom dancing at Fred Astaire and Arthur Murray while in college was a L.I. and NYC schoolteacher becoming a reading specialist with her second masters. Was employed and then self employed as a sales rep for tabletop, cards, wedding favors and gourmet food. Jaclyn is on the boards of Temple Emanuel-El Long Beach, Long Beach Art League and member of Village Art League, National Art League, Tri County Artists, Art League of L.I. and a volunteer at the Long Beach Soup Kitchen and Temple Emanu-El Long Beach in an effort to give back for all my blessings.

Myra Cohen MEMBERSHIP SECRETARY

Myra Cohen will continue as Membership Secretary. She has also worked on our Reproductive Rights Campaign. Myra Cohen has recently become a life member of Peninsula Section. Myra has lived in Long Beach for 45 years. She is a retired Social Worker. Before retirement, Myra worked at Long Island Jewish Valley Stream Hospital as Director of Volunteer Services. She has a son and a daughter and 2 granddaughters who are the sunshine of her world.
